

create a sql proxy server which interacts with the normalized message router and generates a normalized message to the tenant aware jbi endpoint which is deployed using camel. we send it to a jbi endpoint to make it compatible with what we have and to provide future compatibility by using camel, because jbi integration in servicemix is being deprecated from version 4.0.

(*) if the target datasource is a nosql datasource, both query and data must be transformed in the DA Transformer